

CESSNOCK REGIONAL ART GALLERY

APRIL SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAMS

Monday 12 – Friday 16 April 2010

Held at 27 Vincent St Cessnock

Expressive Painting

Monday 12 April 10am – 12pm

Ages: 7 – 12 Cost : $15

Teacher: Dorothy Compton

Inspired by the work of famous artists students will work with pencil and paint on a large scale to produce their own expressive paintings. All materials included. Bring an old shirt or apron, a drink and snack.

Ceramic Art

Tuesday 13 April 10am – 12pm

Ages: 7 – 12 Cost : $30

Teacher: Vicki Birt

Paint your very own egg & toast plate, maybe put your own name on it, so every body will know that it's yours. Ceramic painting is a fun way for children to be entertained for hours and have a lasting memento to keep and use for years to come! Everything is included in this class. All glazes are non-toxic and water-soluble. I complete the final glazing and firing. Your work of art will be ready to be picked up from The Art Space the following week. I supply everything from brushes to paint and the funky egg & toast plate made from clay. Bring an old shirt or apron, a drink and snack to the class.

Creative fun with drawing and painting

Wednesday 14 April 10am – 12pm

Ages: 7 – 12 Cost : $15

Teacher: Steve James

These classes are designed to stimulate imagination, creativity and art skills. Students can experiment with a range of traditional and contemporary art techniques. Tuition is individually focused aiming to give students the confidence & skills to explore their own ideas through their artworks. All materials included. Bring an old shirt or apron, a drink and snack.

Creative Constructions

Thursday 15 April 10am – 12pm

Ages: 7 – 12 Cost : $15

Teacher: Di Stackpool

Use recycled materials to unleash your inner artist. Bring paper, buttons, string and cardboard. Get creative with art and recycling and construct a modern masterpiece of your own. Other materials to extend your ideas are supplied on the day. Bring an old shirt or apron, a drink and snack.

Book Illustration

Friday 16 April 10am – 12pm

Ages: 7 – 12 Cost : $15

Teacher: Penny Walton

Penny is an award winning children's book illustrator. Let her guide you through developing an illustration for a popular book using drawing, colour pencil and watercolour. Bring an old shirt or apron, a drink and snack.
